Visually attractive in its simplicity were the arrangements for the wedding at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon of Miss Irma Emmerich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe Emmerich, and Mr. Thomas Hamilton Dawson, ir., at the home of the bride's parents in Calvert street.

The Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's Church, read the service in the presence of the immediate members of the family. The bride and groom were without attendants. Mr. Emmerich gave his daughter in marriage. There was an artistic arrangement of pink roses, snapdragons, paims and ferns in the bay window where the bridai party stood, and the same flowers were used as a decoration throughout the reception floor.

Argentina Anxious Over Trade of U. S.

Buenos Ayres, June 18.—The participation of the United States in the European war is seriously hampering Argentine interests, as well as United States interests, in Argentina. The requisition of steamers has begun to cause genuine alarm among business men here.

As commerce with Europe fell away Argentine trade with the United States proportionately increased. Now all this traffic receives a serious blow by the requisition of ships flying the American flag.

It appears certain that, if it has not already done so secretly, the Argentine government will in the near future begin diplomatic conversations at Washington, looking toward the fulfillment of present contracts and the obtaining of governmental permission for a continuance of commercial activities between United States ports and Buenos Ayres.

Illustrating some of the advantages of remaining in the navy, Lieut, Morgan said that only a few days ago he was chatting at a street corner with a member of Washington's, police force, who was once a shipmate with Chief Yeoman Pape, of the local recruiting office. The patrolman, who enlisted thirty years ago as a boy of 16, served thirteen years in the navy, and wishes now that he had remained in the service. If he had stayed in the service, he pointed out, he would be retired now and getting more money than he receives from the police department.
